

Temple Israel Newsletter August 5, 2018

Presidents Message

The Temple Israel Board of Trustees and I hope that everyone has had an enjoyable summer. Soon fall will be here and with it the Days of Awe, starting with Rosh Hashanah and ending with Yom Kippur. This is a sacred time to Jews around the world. A time to reflect on what we have done and what we would like to do, what changes we might make in our lives. It is a time for repentance and prayer. A time to seek forgiveness from anyone we may have intentionally or unintentionally wronged. It is a time for good deeds, tzedakah. A time to help others through giving of ourselves.

These Ten Days of Awe, or Days of Repentance allows each of us to renew our commitment to our Jewish selves, our family, our synagogue and our community. May each of you have a good and sweet year, Shana Tova, umetukah.

Student Rabbi: Caroline Sim fourth year Rabbinical student at Hebrew Union College in Cincinnati Ohio will lead us in Sabbath services and High Holiday services this year. Caroline grew up in the suburbs of Cincinnati. She earned her B.A. in English, French, and European Studies at the Ohio State University. After finishing her studies Caroline was a teaching assistant in the English language to French elementary school students in Paris.

Caroline completed a graduate certificate in Judaic Studies at the University of Cincinnati before becoming a Rabbinical student at HUC. Caroline has served as a student Rabbi for Temple Beth Shalom in Ishpeming, Michigan and Temple Emanu-El in Dothan, Alabama. She has served as an Education Fellow at Temple Shalom in Cincinnati. Most recently Caroline was the Rabbinic Fellow at the Edward B. Bruggeman Center for Interfaith Dialogue at Xavier University. Caroline's position involved working with the Cincinnati community to confront implicit bias concerning religion.
